

Why Participate in ITEX IRAQ 2023 ?

- Meets in ITEX IRAQ 2023, more than 100 Iraqi and International participant companies, more than 10,000 visitors per day to showcases solutions, applications and products, and to discuss the latest developments of the Iraqi Telecommunications sector where the benefits of attendance, knowledge, participation, marketing, and meeting major companies and personalities, and it is considered the most important and largest event in the communications, information technology and digital transformation sector.
- ITEX IRAQ 2023 Exhibition Iraq sponsored by the highest authority in the telecommunications sector (MOC) and Minister DR. Heyam Al Yasiri, The Ministry is present in all its capabilities, companies and the personalities of its advanced staff. It is trying to assist participants in opening the debate at the General Conference on sector issues and how to find solutions, reform the potential and modernize the structure of the sector from State Institutions and the private sector and import global expertise and products that allow the sector to develop its image.
- The conference will include participation of those who have experience, scientific standing and full knowledge of challenges of the private sector with knowledge accumulated from work for many years in both sectors, especially in Iraq.
- Attend your promotional and marketing business plan and introduce yourself, your thoughts and products at ITEX Iraq and what you are developing in 2023 and enter the professional race and compete and get your space in the Iraqi market
- The exhibition allows exhibitors to display products and services to the beneficiary target audience in its telecommunications sector environment of various international and local categories.
- Discover new opportunities in the Iraqi market and find new partners, strengthen your existing relationships, grow your network of relationships and invest in a new competitive advantage industry that allows you to improve your business.
- See the needs of the Iraqi market in both the private and public sectors and what their requirements are from